

האוניברסיטה
העברית
בירושלים
THE HEBREW
UNIVERSITY OF JERUSALEM

The Department of International Relations and the Leonard Davis Institute for International Relations
Announce a call for candidates for 2021/22

The Davis Graduate School of International Relations (TELEM IR)

The DGSIR combines funded MA & PhD studies

Application deadline: May 18, 2021

The DGSIR is a five-year program structured as a graduate school, along the lines of leading programs worldwide.

The DGSIR, unique in Israel, strives to train first-rate PhD students who will successfully integrate into the academic community or the policy world. It seeks to provide its students with the financial means that will allow them to focus on and develop their academic career.

- An intensive and challenging learning environment
- Studying with a selective group of high-achieving students
- A mix of English and Hebrew in learning and writing
- Admitted students receive funding for the entire duration of the program (subject to satisfactory progress)
- Most students serve as teaching or research assistants

For further information, please contact:

Ms. Vered Eiss, Department of International Relations, 02-5883061, verede@savion.huji.ac.il

Dr. Devorah Manekin, DGSIR Head, dmanekin@mail.huji.ac.il

Web: <http://info.huji.ac.il/International-Relations-Telem>

